

International Transfer Certificate (ITC) Incoming Player

(All clubs should allow at least 30 days for the issuing of an ITC. This time could increase during peak periods)

- If a Player was previously registered with an International Club, FFA needs to request an ITC from the National Association of that International Club.
- FFA cannot register a Player unless and until the ITC is received (or no response has been received from the National Association 30 days from the date of FFA's request).
- The last date on which FFA can request an ITC is the last day of a Competition's Registration Period.
- ITC's are only permitted if the player is aged 18 or over. (Article 19, FIFA Regulations for the Status and Transfer of Players)
 - An exception applies if the Player's parents move to the country in which the new club is located for reasons not linked to football.
- An ITC is not required for a Player under the age of 10 years.
- All club enquiries should be directed to the relevant Member Federation.

International Transfer Certificate (ITC) Outgoing Player

- If a Player was previously registered with an Australian Club, the new National Association needs to request an ITC from FFA.

- The Foreign Association cannot register a Player unless and until the ITC is received from FFA (or no response has been received from the FFA 30 days from the date of New National Association's request).

- The last date on which the New National Association can request an ITC is the last day of a Competition's Registration Period.

- ITC's are only permitted if the player is aged 18 or over. (Article 19, FIFA Regulations for the Status and Transfer of Players)
 - An exception applies if the Player's parents move to the country in which the new club is located for reasons not linked to football.

- An ITC is not required for a Player under the age of 10 years.

- All club enquiries should be directed to the relevant Member Federation.

